[REDACTED] se incumbents should have overseas experience. The Working Group agreed as a first step to attempt to identify those positions in the overt offices where overseas experience would be an asset. The members of the Working Group agreed to bring to the next meeting the T/O's of their respective offices in order to form a basis for further discussion.

25X1A9a 4. [REDACTED] offered to make available to the Working Group the plans of various industries and firms on Career Management that have been assembled in his office.

5. There was discussion, with no conclusions reached, of the possible incompatibility of the Civil Service system with a rotational program, specifically, the problems that would arise when an individual who had earned a certain grade level, perhaps in an overseas position, was rotated into a [REDACTED] that might carry a lower grade.
